POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

1. On or about March 31, 2009, the above-named Debtor filed a Chapter 11 Petition in Bankruptcy with this Court. Gung Co Concrete is the Debtor in a jointly administered Chapter 11 case entitled The Rhodes Companies, L.L.C., et. al., case No. 09-14814-LBR (Jointly Administered).

2. Movant is informed and believes, and, based upon such information and belief, alleges, that insurance proceeds independent of the Debtors are in existence to pay the claim of Movant from non-estate source.

3. Movant requests the Court lift the stay to allow the action against the Debtor to go forward to judgment or settlement with the understanding that no estate assets may be encumbered by such action, but that Movant may proceed against insurance proceeds independent of the estate and file a claim against Debtor for any unpaid judgment amount.

WHEREFORE, Movant prays judgment as follows:

1. For an Order lifting the stay to allow Movant to proceed against Debtor toward judgment or settlement with the understanding that no estate assets may be encumbered by such action, but that Movant may proceed against insurance proceeds independent of the estate and file a claim against Debtor for any unpaid judgment amount.
